

Merry Christmas!

A gift of hope has been given in your name that will provide for someone in need this Christmas.

The gift of sight is something we can take for granted. In many of the countries where we work, people are hopeless when their vision is impaired. A simple pair of eyeglasses can truly change a life and give a person the invaluable gift of sight.

May your heart be warmed as this gift blesses someone in a dynamic way this Christmas on your behalf.

